“Missing Bible Versions”

Some Bible verses are not found in all versions. The reasons for their exclusion are often explained in the front matter of each version or in the notes pertaining to the prior verses. The verses listed (KJV) below are excluded from some versions and translations. They may embellish the passages to which they belong, but they do not detract from or add to the truths of Scripture.

Matthew 6:13: “For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.”

Matthew 17:21: “Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.”

Matthew 18:11: “For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.”

Matthew 23:14: “Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.”

Mark 7:16: “If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.”

Mark 9:44: “Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.”

Mark 9:46: “Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.”

Mark 11:26: “But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.”

Mark 15:28: “And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.”

Luke 17:36: “Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.”

John 5:4: “For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.”

Acts 8:37: “And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”

Acts 15:34: “Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.”

Acts 24:7: “But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,”

Acts 28:29: “And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.”

Romans 16:24: “The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.”

1 John 5:7: “For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.”

There is a verse that we recite at worship service that goes like this: “For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.” This verse is not found in the ESV or other versions that many of us use. Some Bible verses are not found in all versions. The reasons for their exclusion are often explained in the front matter of each version or in the notes pertaining to the prior verses. This verse is shown as part of Matthew 6:13 in the King James Version, Holman Christian Standard Bible, Hebrew Names Version, Jubilee Bible 2000, New American Standard Bible, New King James Version, Orthodox Jewish Bible, Third Millennium Bible, Tyndale, World English Bible, Young's Literal Translation, and perhaps some others. It is not shown in the Latin Vulgate or Douay Rheims versions. ¹

“Roman Catholic and modern Bible versions of the prayer do not have this ending. This powerful doxology has been falsely characterized as a late addition as it is not found in the two earliest Greek witnesses of Matthew 6:13 - Sinaiticus and Vaticanus both from the 4th century. Yet it is found in the third earliest Greek witness of Matthew 6:13, Codex Washingtonensis from the 4th to 5th century. Hence a manuscript testifying for the doxology is preceded by only two adverse manuscripts, and that by just one or a half century. The doxology exists in the majority of Byzantine manuscripts.”²
